

Wedderburn Conservation Management Network Presents

Listening to the Mount

Culture at Kooyoora and Korong

Join us to learn more from Traditional Owners, the Dja Dja Wurrung people, about the history and culture of the Mount Korong and Mount Kooyoora region.

We'll gather together for a traditional smoking ceremony, and then women will go to Mount Korong and men to Mount Kooyoora, to learn about "Walking this Way" - walking women's way, men's way, Country's way.

When: Sunday 29 May 2016, 9:30am - 1:00pm

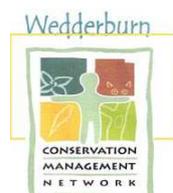

Where: Meet at the Glenalbyn Campground on the Brenanah-Glenalbyn Road before heading to Mount Korong or Mount Kooyoora. Own vehicle required & car-pooling is encouraged.

RSVP: Registrations are essential and numbers are strictly limited. Please register by May 20 by contacting Trudy Nelsson on 0419 800 980 or email your name, contact details, dietary requirements, and if you'll be attending the Korong (female) or Kooyoora (male) event to: listeningtothemount@gmail.com

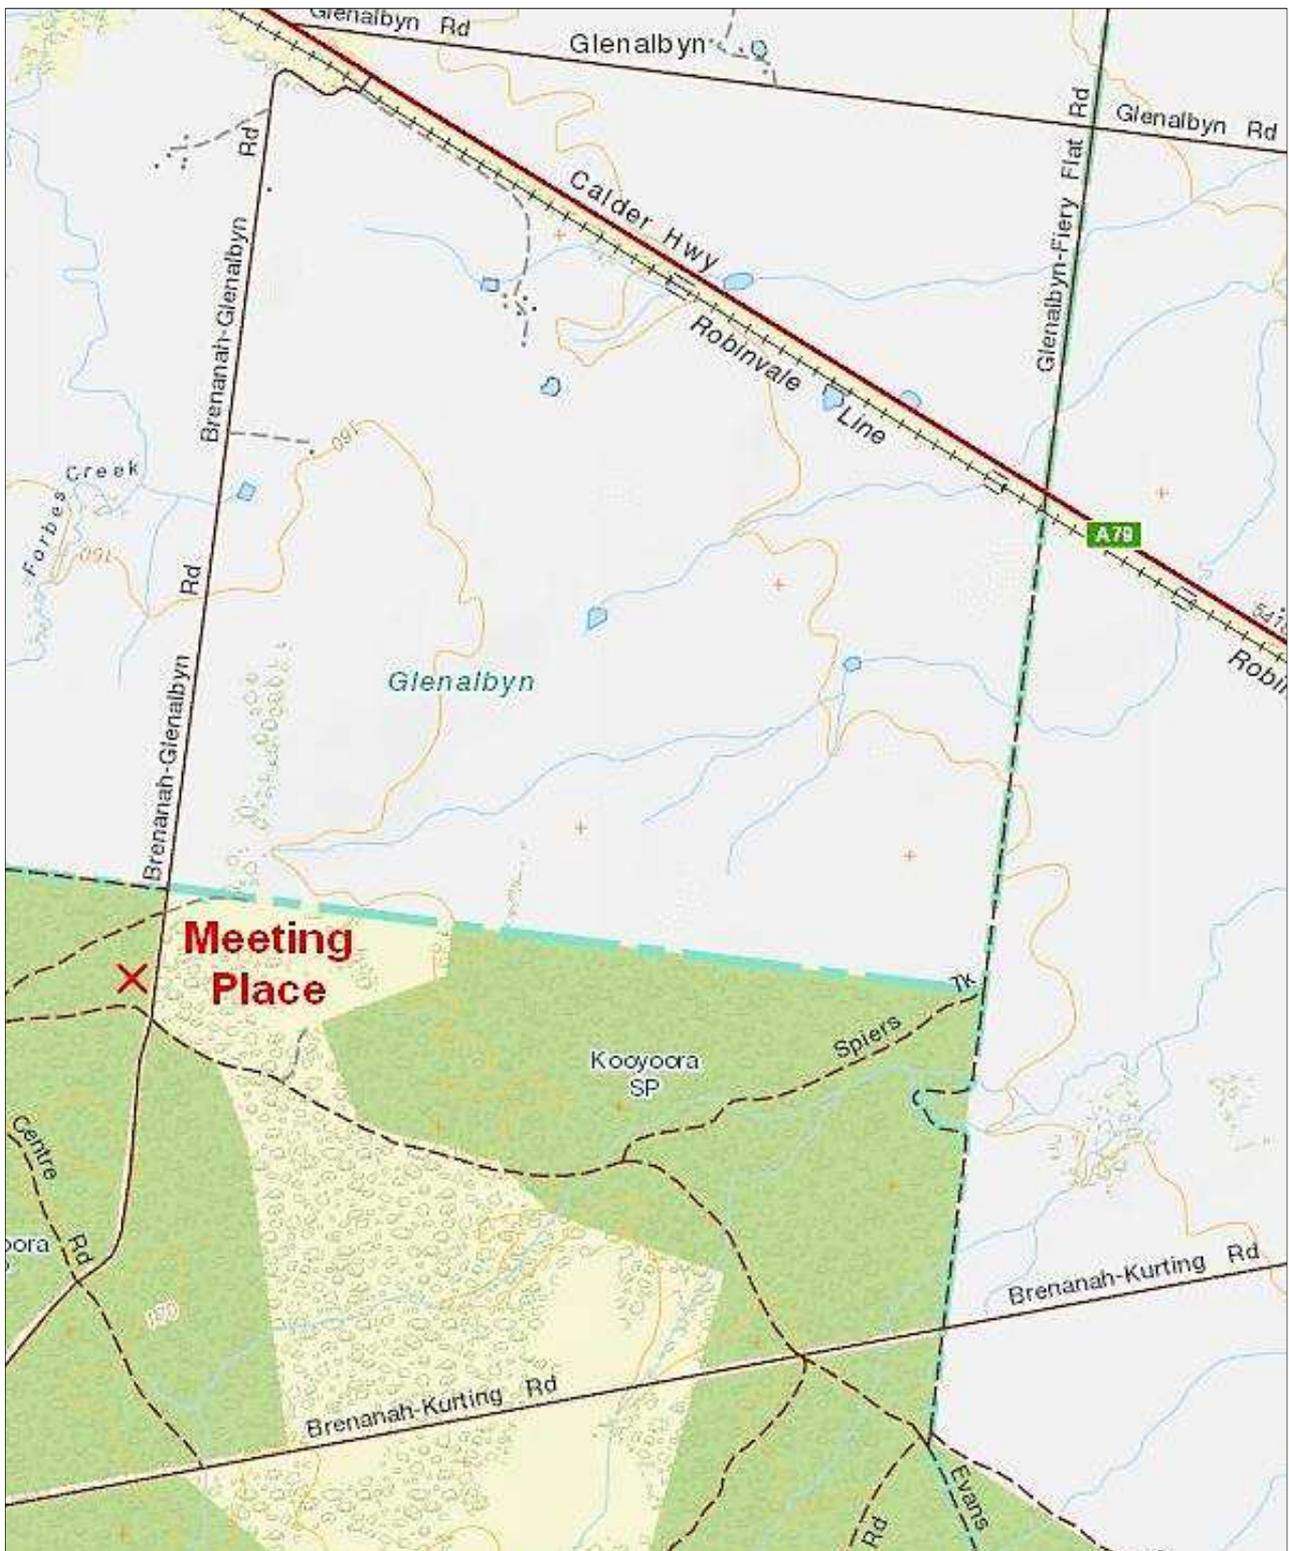

This is a free event and morning tea will be provided.

Children are welcome to attend although no children specific activities will be delivered.

This event is supported by the North Central CMA Kooyoora Connections project through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Programme.

Location Map

Meet at the Glenalbyn Campground on the Brenanah-Glenalbyn Road before departing to either Mount Korong (female) or Mount Kooyooora (male) event locations.